

Cooper Creek Partners North America Long Short Equity UCITS Fund

Long/Short Equity

July 2021

Performance Returns

The Cooper Creek Partners North America Long Short Equity UCITS Fund returned -2.7% for the month of July (IE00BG08P444) resulting in a net 2021 return of 0.5%.

Investment Objective & Strategy

The Cooper Creek Partners North America Long Short Equity UCITS Fund seeks to generate attractive absolute returns, non-correlated to equity market performance by investing in a portfolio of high conviction ideas with a low net exposure.

Cooper Creek employs a catalyst-driven, value-oriented approach to investing in small/mid-cap, under-the-radar and/or out-of-favour North American companies with the potential for transformational change. There is a significant focus on generating alpha from single name investments on both the long and short sides of the portfolio.

Monthly Commentary

In July, Cooper Creek Partners North America Long Short Equity UCITS Fund generated a -2.7% return, while averaging 8.0% net exposure, compared to the Russell 2000 and the S&P 500, which returned -3.6% and 2.4%, respectively. Over this period, the longs returned -8.1% and the shorts returned 5.4%.

Shorts led performance in July. A consumer goods and a retail position each added over 50 basis points to fund performance on the month. Four additional shorts, including a consumer goods, a retail, an industrial and a technology situation, each added over 30 basis points to fund performance. One business services short cost the fund over 30 basis points on the month.

After 9 consecutive profitable months, the longs were negative in July, which saw a rotation away from the reopening trades, resulting in several of our value with a catalyst longs retreating from the end of Q2 levels. Losses were led by two energy, two industrials, a consumer goods, a business services and a technology situation, each of which cost the fund 50 basis points or more on the month. We selectively added to several highest conviction long ideas in the industrial, technology and energy space, while trimming several consumer related longs. We remain quite sanguine on the opportunity set on the long side for the foreseeable future. Also, one of our highest conviction industrial situations was acquired in July, adding over 60 basis points to fund performance.

We enter July 99.1% long and 89.2% short/ 9.9% net long.

At the sector level, the fund's largest exposures are industrials, at 45.3% gross invested/ 8.0% net long; consumer staples, at 32.9% gross invested/ 7.2% net short; retail, at 30.7% gross invested/ 11.6% net short; energy, at 22.1% gross invested/ 16.9% net long; technology/ internet, at 17.7% gross invested/ 9.9% net long; media/ telecom, at 15.7% gross invested/ 6.7% net long; gaming/ lodging/ restaurants, at 14.1% gross invested/ 8.0% net short, and business services, at 9.9% gross invested/ 4.8% net short.
