

FACTSHEET

THE MANAGER

Investment Objective & Strategy

The Crabel Advanced Trend UCITS Fund is advised by Los Angeles based managed futures trading pioneer, Crabel Capital Management, LLC. Crabel Advanced Trend is a portfolio of systematic trading strategies designed to efficiently capture long-term trend following returns across a diverse set of global futures and foreign exchange instruments. The program aims to generate greater alpha and deliver a more competitive risk-adjusted return than the broader trend following industry. In pursuing this objective, Crabel Advanced Trend employs multiple price-based strategies engineered to identify and profit from continuations in price movement across approximately 200 markets globally. The program seeks to mitigate downside risk by dynamically sizing trades relative to market volatility, actively employing the use of stops on all trades throughout the portfolio, and effectively diversifying overall portfolio volatility across market sectors and geographic regions. Individual positions are generally held for 35-45 days, and the portfolio in aggregate targets an annualized standard deviation of 15%.

Monthly Commentary

The Crabel Advanced Trend UCITS Fund finished the month of April up +0.86%, which brings the year-to-date return to +0.03%. After the first quarter of the year produced very strong returns in fixed income, April experienced a moderate giveback in the sector. However, for the month Advanced Trend traded to a positive result in the other three sectors, led by equity indices. With equity indices achieving or approaching all-time highs across most instruments and geographies, bullish positioning in the sector proved advantageous. In the absence of clear, observable, long-term trends in commodities and foreign exchange, a good result in those markets was to some extent a representation of the value added by Advanced Trend's dynamic approach to time-frame selection along with its utilization of high conviction research on trend quality. That said, in a year such as 2019, which to date has seen equity indices revert to a bullish low-volatility trend reminiscent of 2017 and most of 2018, slower/simpler approaches -- the longer the lookback the better -- have likely proved moderately more successful. "Risk-off" market events over the last quarter of 2018 appear now as more of a hiccup than a course change. However, the value of being more thoughtful and trading a broad universe of instruments -- beyond the 40 or 50 most liquid -- is significant and has consistently added value over multi-year investment horizons.

Why Advanced Trend?

- Thoughtful Design. Intuitive research into time-frame selection, sector exposure, volatility interpretation and trend quality identification is leveraged to maximize trend capture.
- Aggressive Trading Cost Reduction. The cost to execute a trend following strategy adds up far more quickly than is realized. Trade slippage is reduced through Crabel's proprietary algorithmic execution infrastructure.
- Structurally Diversified. The program is timeframe and sector diversified trading a broad array of derivative instruments.
