G10 Blueglen Equita Total Return Credit UCITS Fund

Multi Strategy European Credit

January 2020

Investment Objective & Strategy

The Blueglen Equita Total Return Credit Fund follows a fundamental research-driven investment process which identifies opportunities in European credit markets. The investment strategy is focused on harvesting excess return from European Structured Finance Markets (ABS) and European Credit (Corporate and Financials, Credit Derivatives) across their respective capital structures.

We aim to generate an initial portfolio yield of approximately 3.5% net of fees in EUR and a target return of 5-6% pa by purchasing securities as described above and enhancing the return by entering into financing transactions (repurchase agreements) with top tier global banks, such as JPMorgan, Barclays, BNP Paribas. Net credit exposure is anticipated to be in the range of 100-150%.

Our shorts will be expressed via an option program on credit indices (Main and Crossover).

Market Commentary

January marked the return of market volatility. The VIX index was up by 37% last month to 18.8, after having hit a low of 12.6 at the end of November. This volatility was sparked by fears of the spreading Coronavirus epidemic in China and its potential effects on the global economy.

Equity markets reversed the early January gains and ended the month mixed in the US (S&P500 -0.16%, Nasdaq +1.99%) and down in Europe (Eurostoxx600 -1.2%, FTSE MIB -2.8%).

US Treasury and German Bund yields declined by 41bps and 25bps to 1.51% and -0.44% respectively. The BTP-Bund spread narrowed by 23bps (to 1.37%), moving closer to the lows of October, following the outcome of the regional election in Emilia Romagna, where the left-leaning Democratic party (PD) defeated the right-wing Lega, thus reducing the likelihood of a snap general election.

The Q4 US GDP grew (in line with expectations) by +2.1%, a value that implies an annual increase of +2.3% (from +2.9% in 2018). We believe that EU economic growth will also slow down throughout 2020.

European credit markets followed the equity markets performance in Europe with the iTraxx Europe Main Index widening by 2bps to 46bps and the iTraxx Crossover Index widening by 23bps to 231bps. From a fund flows' perspective, Euro IG funds experienced an inflow of EUR 1.8bn (0.8% of AUM) and Euro HY funds experienced an inflow of EUR 164m (0.2% of AUM).

The CLO market outperformed during the month and the junior part of the capital structure, in particular, tightened significantly. Longer duration BB bonds moved by up to 3-5 points whilst shorter duration names increased by around 1-2 points. This rally was driven by a combination of some new investors entering the market, attracted by the relative value of CLOs versus other credit instruments, and long-standing CLO investors putting new money to work at the start of the year. Given this occurred against a backdrop of limited primary activity, as the CLO equity arbitrage situation remains challenging, bonds in the secondary market were bid up dramatically.

In terms of the Fund's portfolio, our CLO positions rallied strongly whilst our Subordinated Financials positions were more muted although still contributed positively to performance. Towards the end of the month, a couple of names released details of their most recent results, which were generally either in line or ahead of expectations leading to some small outperformance of these names.

The Fund EUR A2 share class was up 2.45% on the month while the C2 USD share class was up 2.60% with a corresponding net yield of 3.54% in Euros and 5.40% net in USD.
