

FACTSHEET

Investment Objective & Strategy

The Crabel Gemini UCITS Fund is advised by managed futures trading pioneer, Crabel Capital Management, LLC. Crabel Gemini is a fully systematic portfolio of short holding period strategies designed to target structural market inefficiencies across a broadly diversified set of global futures and currency instruments.

The portfolio is deliberately structured to provide low correlation to all asset classes and offers a unique source of returns with over 40 differentiated and stand-alone strategy frameworks composing the Program. Crabel's focus on execution excellence provides a further advantage in efficiently accessing unique exposures in managed futures and foreign currency markets.

Crabel Gemini seeks to control risk by dynamic sizing of new trades relative to market volatility, the use of stops and a balance of volatility broadly diversified across sectors and geographic regions. Crabel Gemini has an approximate 10-day average hold timeframe and targets a 10% annualized standard deviation.

Monthly Commentary

The Crabel Gemini UCITS Fund finished May down an estimated -0.09%, which brought the year-to-date estimate to +6.41%. For the month, the Gemini portfolio was negative in three of four sectors. The Fixed Income sector balanced out very small losses across the other three sectors. Coming into the month, Fixed Income had been a negative contributor year-to-date to the portfolio and from a diversification standpoint it was encouraging to see the sector rebound to balance out the rest of the portfolio on the month. Good Fixed Income returns and a "flat-ish" month were also encouraging given two notable events that tended to be difficult for systematic strategies: USD strengthening, and the Italy scare late in the month. One of the reasons for a flat month in what turned out to be a tricky stretch of market action was the performance of the Opportunistic strategies. Within Gemini, these strategies show low/no and sometimes even negative correlation to other concepts inside and outside the portfolio. On the month and year-to-date, Opportunistic strategies have contributed positively to the returns. Additionally, Factor Timing showed a slight positive return in a generally negative month for long-term trend following. Only Volatility Breakout and Reversal strategies were negative for the month.

Why Gemini?

- Uncorrelated Philosophy. The portfolio is designed to have low correlation to both traditional asset classes and trend following strategies.
- Aggressive Trading Cost Reduction. The cost to execute adds up far more quickly than is realized. Trade slippage is reduced through Crabel's proprietary algorithmic execution infrastructure.
- Unique Holding Timeframe. Strategies trade a balanced array of timeframes but average to a 10-day holding period.
- 40 Strategy Concepts in Four Categories. (i) Volatility Breakout; (ii) Mean Reversion; (iii) Factor Timing; (iv) Opportunistic
