

FACTSHEET

Investment Objective & Strategy

The Crabel Gemini UCITS Fund is advised by managed futures trading pioneer, Crabel Capital Management, LLC. Crabel Gemini is a fully systematic portfolio of short holding period strategies designed to target structural market inefficiencies across a broadly diversified set of global futures and currency instruments.

The portfolio is deliberately structured to provide low correlation to all asset classes and offers a unique source of returns with over 40 differentiated and stand-alone strategy frameworks composing the Program. Crabel's focus on execution excellence provides a further advantage in efficiently accessing unique exposures in managed futures and foreign currency markets.

Crabel Gemini seeks to control risk by dynamic sizing of new trades relative to market volatility, the use of stops and a balance of volatility broadly diversified across sectors and geographic regions. Crabel Gemini has an approximate 10-day average hold timeframe and targets a 10% annualized standard deviation.

Monthly Commentary

The Crabel Gemini UCITS Fund finished the month of March with an estimated +2.23% return. March's positive return eclipsed February's loss of -2.22%, netting an overall year-to-date equity high for the portfolio with an estimated +6.46% year-to-date return. While the first five trading days of March produced a slightly negative result, during the broad stock market sell-off over the remainder of the month the Gemini portfolio traded positively, producing an overall good month. While Stock Indices produced a strong positive gain, it was the Fixed Income sector gain that was most impactful to Gemini from an overall "risk-off" positioning. Commodities were slightly negative and Foreign Exchange markets traded to a small gain on the month. Driven by the choppy market conditions early in the month, the Volatility Breakout category traded to a small negative attribution on the month. While strong returns in Volatility Breakout trading were generated during the stock market sell-off mid-month, those gains were not enough to produce a positive result for the full month. On the other hand, given several sharp market whipsaws, the Factor Timing and Reversal categories produced very strong gains, followed by a smaller gain from the Opportunistic category.

Why Gemini?

- Uncorrelated Philosophy. The portfolio is designed to have low correlation to both traditional asset classes and trend following strategies.
- Aggressive Trading Cost Reduction. The cost to execute adds up far more quickly than is realized. Trade slippage is reduced through Crabel's proprietary algorithmic execution infrastructure.
- Unique Holding Timeframe. Strategies trade a balanced array of timeframes but average to a 10-day holding period.
- 40 Strategy Concepts in Four Categories. (i) Volatility Breakout; (ii) Mean Reversion; (iii) Factor Timing; (iv) Opportunistic
