

Cooper Creek Partners North America Long Short Equity UCITS Fund

Long/Short Equity

November 2021

Performance Returns

The Cooper Creek Partners North America Long Short Equity UCITS Fund returned 0.7% for the month of November (IE00BG08P444) resulting in a net 2021 return of 5.3%.

Investment Objective & Strategy

The Cooper Creek Partners North America Long Short Equity UCITS Fund seeks to generate attractive absolute returns, non-correlated to equity market performance by investing in a portfolio of high conviction ideas with a low net exposure.

Cooper Creek employs a catalyst-driven, value-oriented approach to investing in small/mid-cap, under-the-radar and/or out-of-favour North American companies with the potential for transformational change. There is a significant focus on generating alpha from single name investments on both the long and short sides of the portfolio.

Monthly Commentary

In November, Cooper Creek Partners North America Long Short Equity UCITS Fund generated a 0.7% return, while averaging 8.4% net exposure, compared to the Russell 2000 and the S&P 500, which returned -4.2% and -0.7%, respectively.

Both the long and the short book were positive on the month, up 0.3% and 0.4%, respectively.

A technology and an auto situation led the profits on the short side, each contributing over 50 basis points on the month, followed by an energy short which added approx. 40 basis points to fund performance. Two industrial and a technology short each detracted over 40 basis points from fund performance on the month.

On the long side, an industrial, two telecom and an auto situation each added over 50 basis points to performance. Two industrial and a gaming/ lodging position each cost the fund over 50 basis points on the month.
