

Cooper Creek Partners North America Long Short Equity UCITS Fund

Long/Short Equity

September 2022

Performance Returns

The Cooper Creek Partners North America Long Short Equity UCITS Fund returned 1.0% for the month of September (IE00BG08P444) resulting in a net 2022 return of 21.1%.

Investment Objective & Strategy

The Cooper Creek Partners North America Long Short Equity UCITS Fund seeks to generate attractive absolute returns, non-correlated to equity market performance by investing in a portfolio of high conviction ideas with a low net exposure.

Cooper Creek employs a catalyst-driven, value-oriented approach to investing in small/mid-cap, under-the-radar and/or out-of-favour North American companies with the potential for transformational change. There is a significant focus on generating alpha from single name investments on both the long and short sides of the portfolio.

Monthly Commentary

In September, Cooper Creek Partners North America Long Short Equity UCITS Fund generated a 1.0% return, while averaging 15.4% net exposure, compared to the Russell 2000 and the S&P 500, which returned -9.6% and -9.2%, respectively.

The short book contributed 11.3%, while the long book detracted 10.3% in the month.

Shorts were solidly profitable in September, led by a retail, a BDC and an industrial position, each of which added 50 basis points or more to fund performance. Five additional shorts each contributed between 30 and 50 basis points. A consumer goods short situation detracted 30 basis points in the month.

Longs were unprofitable in September. Three "sum-of-the-part" stories, including two industrial and a consumer goods position, each detracted 50 basis points or more from performance. One post-debt restructuring equity situation contributed over 40 basis points in the month.

We enter October 79.5% long and 68.2% short/ 11.3% net long.
